Budge Wins Title

FINE VICTORY OVER VON CRAMM

STRAIGHT SETS

London, July 2.
Losing only nine games throughout the match, Donald Budge (United States) to-day became the new amateur tennis champion of the world when he defeated Baron
Gottfried Von Cramm (Germany) in three straight sets on the centre court at Wimbledon. The last American to win the title was Ellsworth Vines in 1932.
Budge defeated the German champion by scores of 6-3, 6-4, 6-2, indicating that the young American Davis Cupper played the devastating type of game that has featured his clear cut victories throughout the tournament.
Budge's performance has been truly remarkable. From the first round to the final he has lost only one set and that was in the semifinal when Frankie Parker, his Davis Cup team mate, won the first of a four-sets match.

PEACE IN THE BOMB PACIFIC

Mr. Lyons's Proposal

The proposal made at the opening of the Imperial Conference by Mr. Lyons, Australia's Prime Minister, for a regional pact in the Pacific has a good deal more to be said for it than its public reception would suggest, writes a correspondent in the "Manchester Guardian." In the foreground of the facts to be acquiesced in its favour are, first, that it was preceded by a great deal of thought and, secondly, that the thinking, however theoretical in the first instance, is now in accord with local actualities. Of these, one is that Japan is anxious to escape from the isolation in which her recent policy has placed her, while another is that influential leaders of public opinion in China have recently been advocating very much what Mr. Lyons proposes.

LA MERI IS HERE

Wonderful Dancer Arrives

Madame La Meri has arrived. She came by the "President McKinley," and is staying at the Hong Kong Hotel where our representative had the pleasure of interviewing her, in her suite of rooms there.

Clad in a simple gingham dress, she looked very young and pale and slender with blue-green eyes like clear lake water, and narrow brows curved like a swallow's wing. A face which seems a little cold and immobile, until something amuses her, when her firm lips break into a delicious smile and her whole face seems to flash and sparkle.

She has a delightful voice, very fresh and crisp, and an absolute lack of self-consciousness. Yet withal La Meri is very "sure of herself." But why not? She has been acclaimed and applauded in every country in the world, since her first public appearance a few years ago!

Her early childhood was spent in San Antonio, Texas, and a Spanish music and dances formed the background for the study of dancing which has taken her to many famous Masters and almost every country under the sun.

She looks so fresh and gay it is hard to believe that she comes to us after an extensive tour during which she has danced her way through the principle cities in Australia, and from there through Ceylon, India, Malaya, and Java, and on to Manila, and now at last we have a chance of seeing her in Hong Kong!

A TRUE GENIUS

They say that a true genius always possesses "an infinite capacity for taking pains," and a truly great dancer needs a genius for her manager. Madame La Meri is lucky in having for her manager a husband who possesses this form of genius. In the presentation of her dances he leaves nothing to chance. Her back-cloth, her floor-cloth of pale gray, her special lighting equipment, and above all her music all travel with her (No relying on a scratch local orchestra, where La Meri is concerned)—A wonderful super-gramophone with an amplifier capable of filling the biggest hall supplies the music, and furthermore she has her own discs made for each dance, so that when she gives a native dance music by native musicians provides the accompaniment.

Just as all her native costumes are authentic, so is the music also.

JUDGMENT FOR PLAINTIFFS

Battery Labels Case

At the Summary Court yesterday, an action brought against the United Battery Service, (defendants) by the Tin Tsun Lithographers (plaintiffs), claiming the sum of $240 for work done and supply of 240,000 battery labels, was heard before the Pulane Judge, Mr. Justice R. E. Lindsell, who gave judgment to the effect that the action was found to be non-suited.

The plaintiffs were represented by Mr. S. Ng Quin, while Mr. H. L. Kwan appeared on behalf of the defendants.

Giving judgment, his Lordship said:-

"In this action the plaintiff seeks to recover from the defendant the price of certain labels manufactured by him to the defendant's order, and has framed his claim as one for the cost of work done and materials supplied.

"The defence has taken the preliminary objection that the evidence given on behalf of the plaintiff discloses no more than a breach of an agreement for the sale of goods. The true test to be applied in determining whether a particular agreement is one for the sale of goods or one for the supply of labour and materials are most clearly set out in Volume 28 of Halsbury's Laws of England p.881, para. 1518:

"Whether a contract is for work and labour or for goods sold and delivered depends on the term of the individual contract, but when the substance of a contract is that a chattel shall be made and delivered when completed it is one for the sale of goods rather than for work and labour. (Lee v. Griffin (1861) 1 B. & S. 272). If the work and labour ends in nothing that can properly become the subject of the sale, the contract is for work and labour and not for goods sold and delivered. There may be a contract for the sale of goods when the value of the work and labour is far in excess of the value of the materials on which the work and labour is expended, for the true test for distinguishing the two contracts is not the value of the skill and labour as compared with the materials."

"Applying these principles to the present case it seems to me obvious that an agreement for the manufacture and supply of printed labels is one for the sale of goods and nothing else. If I go to a crockery dealer and order a dozen plates of a special pattern to be made for me at a certain price and the dealer undertakes my order, that is clearly an agreement for the sale of future goods, and it can make no difference if the workmanship accounts for ninety per cent. of the price and the material only ten per cent. I can see no difference between such a case and this one. In each the work and labour ends in something that can properly become the subject of a sale.

"The things here ordered became on completion just as saleable as if the plaintiff firm had had them in stock at the time of the order. There was here, then, a contract for the sale of goods of the value of upwards of $100 and by Section 4 (1) of the Sale of Goods Ordinance, 1896, such a contract is not enforceable except in certain circumstances, none of which has here occurred.

"There was no acceptance and actual receipt by the defendant of any of the goods. Nothing was given in earnest to bind the contract, or in part payment, and there was no sufficient note or memorandum in writing made and signed by the defendant.

"The action therefore fails and plaintiff must be non-suited with costs."

CHAN SZE MURDER SEQUEL

LI Fuk-chong, chief manager of the Sincere's Perfumery Manufactory, again appeared on remand at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday charged with being an accessory before the fact in the murder of Mr. Chan Lai-tsun, alias David Chan Sze, former managing director of the Sincere Co.

Detective Inspector Carey asked for a week's remand, but Mr. Lou D'Almeida, Senr., for the defence asked for a date to be fixed. The police, however, stated that this could not yet be done. Mr. D'Almeida said he would ask for a date at the next hearing. The case was adjourned for a week.

DARING KOWLOON ROBBERY

Accused Committed For Trial

The story of a daring robbery which occurred early last month was related at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday when Kwok Fung, alias Kwok Fuk-yeung was charged before Mr. E. Himsforth.

Detective Inspector Cunningham, assisted by Detective Sergt. Forrest, conducted the prosecution.

Dr. R. S. Begbie gave evidence of the examination of certain clothes worn by complainant Wong Ho, widow, at the time of the incident. There were patches of blood on the collar and front and back of the garment, and the white coat which was worn by defendant was also stained.

Dr. C. S. Luke, medical officer at the Kowloon Hospital stated that complainant when admitted to hospital was suffering from a scalp wound on the scalp.

Mr. G. F. Walker, of Messrs. Percy Smith, Seth and Fleming, in evidence said that while he was proceeding home in a taxi about 12.15 a.m. on June 3, and when coming near the Gun Club Hill Barracks, the driver suddenly stopped and alighted from the car. When witness had alighted himself he saw a Chinese woman in the road moaning, and blood was streaming from her head.

The driver chased the robber and returned with the handbag and the defendant.

Wong Ho, in the witness box, told the Court that while she was walking near the Gun Club Hill Barracks she heard footsteps following behind her. Someone then hit her on the head with a piece of wood and bolted in the direction of Hung Hom.

Defendant denied the charge preferred against him. He admitted that he had assaulted Wong Ho because he had lost his temper. Defendant was committed to stand his trial at the next Criminal Sessions.

Darke said the case was for committal and asked for 72 hours remand in police custody, which was granted.

THE MONASTERY

BY SCRUTATOR

(iii) The first two acts of the monastic drama were staged in the East of Europe where the Church was born. With the third act we come to the West, and it is here that the system reached its maximum of usefulness.

We have seen that what began in Puritanic protest led to renunciation and escape. But in the East, the majority of men who renounced the world, renounced the Church at the same time. Hermits were a law unto themselves; there was no uniformity of devotional or ascetic practice, there was no fellowship, no check to individual idiosyncrasies and extravagances. It was largely due to Benedict in the sixth century that the western type of monasticism appeared and was able to develop more sanely and more profitably; and it is important to notice that although in the East the hermits were generally separated from the Church, in the West, the monks, though they were not priests, were associated with the Church, and advanced its work.

With the advent of Benedict in Italy there was infused into the monastic system such a salutary influence that there would never be any danger of a repetition in the West of the mistakes that were made in the East; and all the more since the Western temperament has never been so liable to the eccentricities of crazy individualism and impractical fanaticism which have prevailed elsewhere.

IDEAL OF QUEST

The greatness of Benedict's contribution was that it compacted the ideal of the quest after God with regulations concerning labour, sleep, clothing, food, and so on, all of which he saw to be right interests even for the most religious of men. The new monastic regulations combined spiritual earnestness with practical efficiency. Whereas before his time, religious pioneering had been in the hands of hermits who demonstrated morbidity and delirium as often as faith and love, or in the hands of colleges of monks living together by rules too strange to be Christian and too strict to be kept, Benedict and his men showed how every department of a man's true life could be brought into the province of Christian regulation. A man needed seven or eight hours a day for meals and sleep, so the Rule legislated for that. It added six or seven hours for the offices of the Church, the prayers to be said at the appointed hours. It was such regulation as this which made the Western monastery not a den of retreat and brooding morbidity and unprofitable self-torture, but a centre of sane living, beneficent work, valuable culture, kindly hospitality, and of an intelligible and communicable holiness.

(iv) In the fourth and final stage of monastic development we see an advance on the internal regulation of the monasteries; they became now externally co-ordinated. Just as single individuals had been banded together in houses, so houses now came to be grouped according to orders; and they began therefore to exercise a very considerable influence throughout Europe.

BEACONS IN THE DARK

Separately and individually the monasteries at their best had been in many places like beacons in the dark; amidst the blankness of ignorance, centres of knowledge and culture; in the welter of unthoughtness and barbarism, strongholds of progressive, civilizing abilities. And in these respects, wherever their witness was truly made it was a noble and much needed contribution in troublous times and uncertain conditions.

But as soon as the influence of the monasteries came to exert a wider influence a new danger appeared—the danger of playing a proud role in the political field, and of depending upon precisely the same kind of worldly power and material prosperity which did not belong to true monks at all and from which their predecessors had withdrawn themselves. In a short time the great Orders became so wealthy and powerful that their alliance was coveted by the Church and by the State, as their hostility was feared.

NO REMARK OR PROTEST
Not that this development took place without remark or protest. Time and again, indeed, the monastic system was revived and purged from within. As older Orders settled down into worldly enthusiasm, vigour and missionary zeal. Moreover there came the Friars under Francis and Dominic, who vowed themselves to utter poverty, and went in and out among the people, ministering and teaching. Nevertheless, not all the forces of revival could sufficiently purge and rejuvenate an antiquated system which had already become corrupt. For all that Saint Francis urged against property and organisation, only twenty-two years after his death there were no fewer than eight thousand houses of his own order, growing in prestige and possessions from day to day. The very latest and most revolutionary agencies of revival—the very begging Friars themselves—were doomed to sink in decline with the rest.

On Being A Jew

By

"AXIAN"

The Jews are a race, as no European people is a race. They are a race for the only reason conceivable in the Western world whereby a race can be a race—because they were compelled to be a race. They were compelled to be a race because they had a religion in which they believed. The purity and passion of the Jewish religion is the reason why the Jews are the only real race that exists in modern Europe. The others are merely peoples; but the Jews are a race.

It has always been difficult to be a Jew. It was because they had enough courage and heroism to resist Christianity in the medieval world that the Jews remained a race. That was a very great achievement.

It was only possible because the Jewish religion and the Jewish culture were finer and nobler things than the Christianity which persecuted them. That was self-evident. The Christianity which persecuted the Jews in those days had nothing whatever to do with the religion of the greatest of Jews, the Jew who cried in agony, "Father forgive them, for they know not what they do."

The Jews crucified Jesus' only once, but Christianity by persecuting the Jews, crucified him every day. The Jews only crucified a man; the Christians crucify their God.

THE PRICE

By resisting medieval Christianity, the Jews helped to save the world—the soul of the world. They expressed the resistance of the world-soul to the degradation of Christianity. They opposed a religion against what was only a superstition. They became a race. But if they were to live among European peoples they had to forego their religion for a superstition. Of course many of them did that. But are they to be blamed?

To give up their religion was the price of an education. The German poet Heine, whom somebody wrote about in one of the papers last week, he allowed himself to be baptised for that purpose. The parents of Karl Marx also allowed themselves to be "converted" likewise. But is there anything ignominious in that? The time had come when neither Judaism nor Christianity were living religions any more. For a man of understanding to refuse an education because he wanted to remain a Jew in a way in which he could be a Jew no longer was impossible.

That is what it means to be a Jew in Germany to-day. But it was always very difficult to be a Jew in Germany; humiliation and an intimate self-violation was always the price a Jew had to pay in order to enter the social body of the German nation.

That could not be forgiven. It is not right that it should be forgiven. The man who has to pay that price for social incorporation necessarily becomes an accuser of the society into which he has been incorporated.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON SERMON

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST.

The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all churches of Christ, Scientist, to-morrow, July 4, will be: "God." The Golden Text will be: "To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever" (Jude 1:25).

Among others, the following citations from the Bible will be read: "And Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee; and we went up into a mountain, and sat down there. An great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them 'down at Jesus' feet; and he healed them: insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see; and they glorified the God of Israel." (Matt. 8: 15-23:31).

The Lesson Sermon will also include the following passages from the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The power of God brings deliverance to the captive. No power can withstand divine Love. Instead of God sending sickness and death, He destroys them, and brings to light immortality. Omnipotent and infinite Mind made all and includes all. This Mind does not make mistakes and subsequently correct them. God does not cause man to sin, to be sick, or to die. Truth has no consciousness of error. Love has no sense of hatred. Life has no partnership with death. Truth, Life, and Love are a Law of annihilation to everything unlike themselves, because they declare nothing except God." (Pages 224, 226, 243).

How to Cure Your

SKIN ERUPTION

Why suffer humiliation from the scrutiny of passers-by? If your face is marred by a disfiguring eruption, an angry rash, or unsightly blotches, a course of Cuticura treatment will quickly clear your skin. Healing starts with the first application. Itching, irritation and smarting stop instantly. Pimples begin to dry up and fade, your mirror shows a visible improvement each day until, in a few days, scarcely a trace of the disfigurement remains.

FOLLOW THESE DIRECTIONS:

Wash the affected part night and morning with Cuticura Soap and hot water. Dry gently and apply Cuticura Ointment. This daily treatment relieves itching and soothes inflammation at once, and is an unfailing remedy. The soothing, healing, antiseptic

Cuticura penetrates to the depths of the eruption. It destroys the lurking germ and eradicates the poison which keeps the disease active. It heals the festering sores and steadily establishes a healthy condition of the skin which leads to complete recovery.

STOWAWAY

For her unusual role in her most remarkable picture, Shirley Temple had to learn some four hundred words of real Chinese, lending not only authenticity but extraordinary entertainment to the Twentieth Century-Fox film, "Stowaway," which opens at the Queen's and Alhambra Theatres to-day.

Singing and speaking in the official Mandarin dialect of China so well that she wins a prize in a Chinese theatre, Shirley had two hundred and fifty fellow students studying the language with her. These were the Chinese "extras" in the film, all of whom spoke dialects other than the one the Chinese government is endeavouring to make the official tongue of China.

WHEN YOU'RE IN LOVE

Doff your hats to one of the most completely captivating picture ever to grace a local screen. At the King's Theatre to-day, Columbia's new Grace vehicle, "When You're In Love," unfolds itself to the undisguised pleasure of those gathered for the occasion. It was easily as triumphant an event as the star's "One Night of Love" three years ago.

Grace Moore could start her career from this moment on, so admirably does she acquit herself in "When You're In Love." There is a freshness, a newness about the opera star that is entrancing, and she has never been in lovelier voice.

NEWS ABOUT PICTURE PEOPLE

MADAME BUTTERFLY RE-MAKE: BETTE DAVIS IS FORGIVEN

Gladys Swarthout is going to play the title role in "Madame Butterfly" after all. With opera films, not so popular as they were, this subject has been on and off the Paramount schedule for many months.

The studio scenarists have been set to work on the various versions of the story by John Luther Long, David Belasco (play) and Giacomo Puccini (opera). With all that to work on, they ought to turn out something good.

Benjamin Glazer will produce the picture, and John Boles will be Miss Swarthout's partner.

Joan Bennett, following the announcement of the break-up of her five-year marriage with Gene Markey, has been given a holiday by Walter Wanger, for whom she is making "Vogues of 1938."

When she gets back to the Wanger fold, she will finish off the rest of the scenes in the picture. Then she goes on to "Summer Lightning," a subject that has been on the Wanger schedule a long time.

Wanger hopes to put "Summer Lightning" into production very quickly. If so, he will be able to get Brian Aherne as Joan's leading man, finishing with Aherne before Mervyn LeRoy needs him for "The Great Garrick."

KING WEARS R.A.F. UNIFORM

London, July 1.

The distinguishing features of the last Buckingham Palace Court in Coronation year were the wearing of the Royal Air Force uniform for the first time by a King of England during a Court, and the wearing of the world-famous Koh-i-noor diamond by Queen Elizabeth, also for the first time.

Over six hundred guests were present.

Two more Courts are being held next week at Holyrood Palace, during the royal visit to Edinburgh.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

PROMOTION FOR MR. H. GIBSON

Washington, July 1.

President Roosevelt has nominated Mr. Hugh Gibson as Ambassador to Belgium.

Mr. Gibson visited Belgium during his leave last spring, when he was Ambassador to Brazil, and is credited with persuading M. Paul van Zeeland, the Belgian Prime Minister, to undertake the mission he has just completed in the United States.—Reuter.

"Vivacious Lady"

Ginger Rogers has got to wait for her solo starring vehicle, "Vivacious Lady," which was all ready to start.

James Stewart's illness held up production, so Ginger gets busy sharing honours with Katharine Hepburn and Burgess Meredith in "Stage Door."

Meanwhile, Fred Astaire gets Ginger's director, George Stevens, for "A Damsel in Distress," and Ginger will have to test her patience for at least four months before "Vivacious Lady" is brought out again.

Joel McCrea has become the olive-branch between Sam Goldwyn and Paramount. Original bone of contention was Gary Cooper. Paramount just couldn't forgive Sam for capturing Gary's signature.

Now, however, Paramount want Joel for "An Empire Is Born," the Wells-Fargo saga which Frank Lloyd is producing. It would fit in quite nicely after "Dead End" on which Joel has just started.

And as Mr. Goldwyn is lending Joel, Paramount will forget about Gary.

ANGLO-FRENCH PROPOSALS

To Be Further Considered

NON-INTERVENTION IN SPAIN

London, July 1. To-morrow's meeting of the Non-Intervention Sub-Committee at which a definite decision is expected on the Anglo-French offer to fill the gap in the Observation Scheme caused by the German and Italian withdrawal from sea patrol work, is awaited with considerable interest in view of the importance of the issues involved. The view strongly held in London is that the control is an essential feature of Non-Intervention. The suggestion appears to be canvassed in Rome and Berlin that it might be possible to combine the measure of Non-Intervention without naval control with the granting of belligerent rights.

NO AGREEMENT?

There is no likelihood at all of Britain and France agreeing to such a combination. Such an arrangement would be definitely partial in its working since the French frontier would continue to be closed while General Franco would be expected to gain some advantage from the use of belligerent rights at sea and there could be no confidence in the proper observation of Non-Intervention at sea without naval patrol.

It must not, therefore, be assumed that France and Britain would be willing to continue Non-Intervention without control. All that can be said with certainty is that at to-morrow's meeting France and Britain may be expected to renew their offer to close the gap in the Naval Observation Scheme and that if it is not accepted they will reserve their attitude towards Non-Intervention as a whole.

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE QUESTION

Meanwhile the view is expressed here that the German and Italian Governments would be well advised to take into account how easily arms could reach the Valencia Government across the French frontier if non-intervention was abandoned—a change which might fully set off any advantage which the granting of belligerent rights might give to General Franco at sea. But Britain and France wish non-intervention to continue and it will not be their fault if it does not.

TO TAKE OVER DUTIES

It is in order that it may be maintained that they have made their joint offer to take over the patrol duties relinquished by Germany and Italy and to have neutral observers on board all British and French patrol vessels as a guarantee of complete impartiality with which they would perform their work.—British Wireless.

BY-ELECTION RESULT

Conservatives Retain Seat

London, July 1. Out of an electorate of 74,000, less than 30,000 voters went to the poll in the by-election in the Kingston-on-Thames Division, caused by Sir George Penny's elevation to the Peerage. The seat was retained by the Conservatives with a greatly reduced majority. Details: Admiral Percy Roys (Con.) 19,887, Mr. G. H. Loman (Lab.) 9,972.

Con. major 9,915.

CLOSE VOTING

London, July 1. The by-election at St. Ives, Cornwall, caused by the elevation to the Peerage of Mr. Walter Runciman (Liberal Nationalist) was declared to-day, after a recount, as follows:

THE TRIPARTITE AGREEMENT

Sir John Simon's Statement

London, July 1. Asked in Commons if he had received any intimation from the French Government as to their attitude towards the Tripartite Currency Agreement, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir John Simon, said that the French Government had assured him that they were anxious to continue close co-operation with the governments of the United States of America and the United Kingdom. He had to-day sent the following reply to the French Minister of Finance:—

"Now that you, as the French Minister of Finance, have been given full powers which you sought to deal with the present situation, I look forward to the continuation of close co-operation between our Treasuries under the Tripartite declaration. I desire to express my sincere hope that France will soon emerge from the temporary difficulties with which she is now confronted."

Sir John added that he understood that a similar message was being sent to the French Minister of Finance by the Secretary of the United States Treasury.—British Wireless.

THE SERVICES

(By Air Mail from London, June 19)

ROYAL NAVY
COMMANDERS AS AIR
OBSERVERS

In an Order in Council published in the "London Gazette" it is stated that with the expansion of the Fleet Air Arm it has become necessary to detail officers of commander's rank as observers. The Admiralty consider that such officers should be eligible for additional remuneration in respect of these duties, as officers of the rank of lieutenant-commander and below have been under an Order in Council of April 26, 1920.

Sanction is given, for the payment, as from January 1, 1937, of an allowance of 3s. 6d. a day to officers of commander's rank when detailed for duty as observers. The allowances payable to observers of lower ranks vary from 2s. to 6s. a day, the latter rate being payable when they are qualified in air wireless telegraphy.

SERVICE IN M.T.B.s

The Admiralty have had under consideration the conditions under which officers and men are called upon to serve in motor torpedo boats, of which the first flotilla of six vessels was completed last year, and is now about to be sent abroad. They are of opinion that some pecuniary allowance should be made in consideration of the discomforts caused by such service. A new Order in Council provides for the payment as from January 1, 1937, of extra pay continuously at one half of the rates laid down in the regulations for the payment of extra pay for general work. The rates for this pay (or hard-lying money, as it is generally called) vary from 1s. to 3s. a day for officers, and 1s. to 1s. 3d. a day for ratings.

NEW WATER TANK VESSELS

DEATH OF
SERGT. SCOTTPolice Armourer
Found Shot

Sergeant J. E. Scott, the Police armourer, was found dead in his office at Police Headquarters yesterday at 9.30 a.m. There was a bullet wound through his forehead and death is believed to have been instantaneous.

Sergeant Scott was born in Hull and was about 36 years of age, having served with the Police Force for ten years. He came from the Northamptonshire Regiment.

Sergeant Scott lived at Tai-pingshan Police Quarters. Coming to Hong Kong in 1927, he passed his first examination in Cantonese in 1929, his second in 1930, and his Hindustani in 1933. In 1935 he was highly commended by the I.G.P. for the excellence of his work as assistant police armourer, in which position he had served since 1928.

FIRE ON H.M.S.
PERSEUS

An outbreak of fire aboard the submarine, H.M.S. Perseus, during the tiffin hour yesterday as the vessel was lying alongside the east wall at the Hong Kong Naval Yard dry dock, caused some excitement in the yard.

It is understood that some old canvas on the submarine caught fire, but members of the crew who were working on board, with the assistance of dock hands, got the outbreak quickly under control. The Dockyard Police were notified, but their services were not required.

First intimation of the fire was received when dense clouds of smoke were seen issuing from below.

Naval Yard fire appliances were rushed to the spot, and a hose was brought into position, the water being directed to the seat of the trouble. Some difficulty was encountered as the entrance below was very narrow, and only two men were able to work at a time. However, eventually the flames were extinguished.

Mrs. N. L. Smith is to distribute the prizes at St. Paul's College in the College Hall at 5 p.m. July 16.

EUROPEAN LADY
ATTACKEDMistaken For The
"Girl Friend"

At the Central Magistracy yesterday, Lam Yiu, aged 22, unemployed, was charged before Mr. K. Keen with assaulting Mrs. R. S. Meadows in Battery Path on Thursday night.

Detective-Sergeant T. Pilkington stated that at about 8.15 p.m. on Thursday, Mrs. Meadows was walking up Battery Path, and when near the French Mission, defendant approached and struck her on the face, and pushed her into the gutter, causing her to fall. Mrs. Meadows immediately called out, and another European lady caught hold of defendant, and later two European soldiers arrived on the scene and helped to secure defendant and take him to Central Station.

Defendant declared he had been waiting for a girl friend. Seeing complainant approach, he had mistaken her for his friend, and being annoyed at being kept waiting, he struck her. He had no intention of striking the complainant.

A remand of 24 hours was ordered, and defendant was allowed bail of $100.

GENUINE IMPRESSION

The first witness was Pak Shun Wah, engineer in charge of printing of the Chung Wah Press.

Witness identified the various printing equipment produced as those used in printing and engraving. Among them were several glass photographic plates, which he stated bore the impression of the genuine Yu Ming Bank banknote.

SNATCHER CAUGHT

Sentence of six months' hard labour, and 12 strokes of the cane was imposed on a 34-year-old unemployed, Man Sum, by Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday morning when he appeared on a charge of larceny from the person of a handbag, belonging to Mrs. Bernardo, residing at No. 7, Nanking Street.

It was stated that while complainant was mounting the staircase to her floor, defendant followed from behind and snatched the bag from her. Mrs. Bernardo shouted out for help, and Mr. Joe Gardener, who was near the vicinity, came to her assistance and arrested Man Sum after a short chase.

Acting Inspector Post, prior to his Worship, imposing the sentence, emphasised the frequency of such offences in Kowloon.

HONG KONG, JULY 3, 1937.

A PACT FOR THE PACIFIC

Undoubtedly one of the most vital and far-reaching proposals which came out of the Imperial Conference was the suggestion, made by Mr. Lyons, the Australian Prime Minister, in his speech on the opening day, that the countries of the Pacific should collaborate in order to achieve "a regional understanding and a pact of non-aggression conceived in the spirit of the principles of the League." The idea of some new agreement in the Pacific is not completely unexpected. It was, for instance, openly canvassed at the Conference of the Institute of Pacific Relations last year, and the British delegates in particular were urged that the time had come to call together the signatories of the Nine-Power Treaty to review the position in the Far East. For one reason, the political and naval agreements concluded at the Washington Conference in 1922—the last attempt to stabilise the changing forces in the Far East—formally terminated at the beginning of the present year, though to all intents and purposes the political treaties had come to an end in 1931 with the Japanese invasion of Manchuria.

But there are better reasons than that. For the first time since 1914 there are signs of a more stable grouping in the Far East; for the first time there is what might reasonably be described as balance of power. When the Washington treaties were signed in 1922 Japan already held a dominant position, as had been recognised earlier still when the victorious Allies allowed her to keep the German islands in the Pacific and to dispose of the German concessions in Shantung. For ten years after that, while China was helpless, Britain intent on disarmament, and Russia recovering from her revolution, Japan ruled the roost with no one to challenge her. But in the last five years the position has changed again, though it is only now being realised.

The most obvious difficulty in the way of a stable Pacific Pact is that of Manchukuo.

There is certainly not the least chance of Japan's signing a regional pact which does not recognise "de jure" the status of Manchukuo, and there seems little more chance that China will sign one which does. Even if that could be circumvented, the Chinese Government would certainly insist on the end of the "autonomous council" of East Hopei and the abandoning of Japanese claims to "a special position in North China." These concessions might be granted—but only in return for the recognition of Manchukuo.

Between Japan and Russia there are several outstanding dis-

INDEPENDENCE DAY UNITED STATES CELEBRATION

Tomorrow is Independence Day when the peoples of the United States will honour the Glorious Fourth.

One hundred and sixty one years ago to-morrow, there was founded in the New World a nation whose Government was later given form in the Constitution of the United States.

The United States had its origin in the revolt of the British colonies in North America, when in the Declaration of Independence, they described themselves as "The Thirteen United States of America."

The first colony to give official countenance to separation as a solution of colonial grievances was North Carolina in April, 1776.

On July 2 by a vote of 12 states 10 voting unanimously, New York not voting, and Pennsylvania and Delaware casting divided ballots (3 votes in the negative)—Congress adopted the resolution of independence; and on July 4, Jefferson's "Declaration."

July 4 has always been the day celebrated, the decisive act of July 2 being quite forgotten in the memory of the day on which that act was published to the world.

The document is full of Jefferson's fervent spirit and personality, and its ideals were those to which his life was consecrated. It is the best known and the noblest of American state papers.

Printed copies of the Declaration with names attached were first authorised by Congress for public circulation in January, 1777.

The original parchment of the Declaration preserved in the Department of State from 1841 to 1877 was injured—the injury was almost wholly to the signatures—in 1823 by the preparation of a facsimile copper-plate, and since 1894, when it was already partly illegible, it has been jealously guarded from light and air.

FILIPINOS WIN

In a friendly basket ball encounter played at the Chinese Y.M.C.A. last evening, the Filipino Olympic Team defeated the home team by 59 points to 39.

In the first half of the match the Filipinos led only by an odd point.

There was a large number of spectators present. The competition was very keen and the game was very enthusiastically played.

rites over the northern fisheries, over the boundary of Manchukuo, over the status of Mongolia. Until recently Japan has refused to sign a non-aggression pact with Russia, but she might change her mind. Britain, Japan, and the United States would chiefly be concerned with the question of naval armaments and naval bases in the Pacific, which has not recently become easier.

Australia, which has most to gain and must to fear, might be asked to offer in return some concession on the subject of immigration.

And what of the form of the pact? China would probably insist on some guarantees of her territorial integrity before she signs another treaty.

Japan, on the other hand, is known to be opposed to any agreement which includes any form of sanctions. What does Mr. Lyons mean by "in the spirit of the principles of the League"? And there are other difficulties. Would Russia insist on a renunciation of Japan's "anti-Communist pact with Germany"? Would the present United States Government sign any political agreement?

It is a dismal catalogue, the only hopeful point is that in all the countries concerned there is a strong body of opinion which would welcome a pact.

POLO CLUB CUP FINAL

"Blue Birds" Win

The Cup Final of the Hong Kong Polo Club was decided yesterday afternoon when the "Blue Birds" defeated the "Mixed Grills" by 5 goals to 1.

Mrs. Gowland, wife of Col. G. C. Gowland, R.E., presented the cup to the winning team.

Detailed results were:—

1. The "Blue Birds" (Lieut. Hemans, Major Currie, Major de Robeck, Brigadier Seth-Smith) 10 points.

2. "Mixed Grills" (Major Boyd-Shannon, Mr. Stanton, Captain Swinburne, Lieut. Nicholson) 9 points.

3. "Bandits" (Mr. Bousfield, Mr. Butcher, Mr. Felden, Lt. Withers) 8 points.

4. "Non-Stops" (Captain Yates, Captain Akroyd-Hunt, Lieut. Marston, Lieut. Weldon) 7 points.

5. "Islanders" (Lieut. Farquhar, Lieut. Hammond Chambers, Capt. Macintosh Walker, Lt. MacLagan) 7 points.

6. "Griggs" (Lt. Boyle, Lieut. Frichard, Captain Harrison, Lieut. Clarke).

The team comprising officers of the Royal Ulster Rifles were obliged to scratch owing to the recent outbreak of glanders among the horses in the regiment.

It was learned that the next tournament will be the Navy Cup which is due to start about the middle or end of this month.

It is possible that Shanghai will send a team to compete for the Kesick Cup. If so the tournament will take place at the end of September or the beginning of October.

The K.O.Y.L. Cup will be the last competition of the season and will commence in early October.

THE WHITE PEACOCK.

Where there is such sure perfection of detail it is hard to select something for special mention, but we understand that her dance "The White Peacock" is quite unique, and that she excels in the interpretation of the dances of Spain—poor tortured country—her troubles give her no time for such pleasures now, but her national dances make a keener appeal for that very reason.

In the Indian dances a very talented young Indian youth is her partner, and for him La Meri predicts a great future.

ELABORATE PROGRAMME

The programme to be presented at the King's Theatre (at her one and only appearance next Monday night) contains fourteen dance numbers, which cover a wide range, and which will transport her audience, to many different countries.

We can make a pretty good guess as to what Hong Kong will think of this lovely and world-famous artiste.

Let us hope that she will be able to carry away an equally favourable impression of Hong Kong—Acwo.

EVENTFUL VOYAGE

The voyage from Canada of the Empress of Canada which arrived here yesterday was marred by an unfortunate incident. When the ship was slowing up at the Quarantine Anchorage in Yokohama, a Russian, John Kupas, cook, attached to the U.S. Army in Manila, and for many years a resident of the United States, jumped overboard, being apparently over-anxious to land. He was rescued and since then has been under observation.

Two Filipinos taken aboard at Honolulu, where they had been working on sugar plantations, were kept in the ship's "brig" throughout the voyage. Both had become mentally unbalanced shortly before sailing.

When the liner was berthing at Vancouver on her last homeward voyage a photographer had a particularly lucky "break." He had climbed to the roof of a 20-storey building near the foot of the pier to obtain a good "shot" of the liner as it berthed. He was rewarded with three photographs showing the liner as she was caught by the wind, as she bore down on the pier, and, finally, as she hit it, tore the cement and inflicted $5,000 damage to her bows.

MALAYAN REVIEW

Bar Committee Dissatisfied

The Singapore Bar Committee is far from satisfied with the reply received from the Secretary of State for the Colonies on the question of the qualifications of Judges of the Supreme Court of the Straits Settlements, and it is good to know that further representations are to be made on the subject. Whether these representations will have any effect is doubtful, for it seems to be the policy of the Colonial Office to force wholesale legislation on colonies and dependencies, regardless of whether such legislation suits local conditions. It appears to the layman nothing more than ordinary common sense that provisions should exist, and the protest of the Bar Committee against the new rules—or rather the absence of any rules at all—has the strongest support of all who take any interest in such a question.

As well as the Bar Committees, the Singapore Chamber of Commerce and the Straits Settlements Association are also protesting strongly. Any interference with time honoured rights is regarded with the liveliest apprehension. "We wish success to the further steps the Singapore Bar Committee intends to take in the matter, but, as we have said, the Colonial Office is a stubborn institution and its officials seem to be, singularly unable to see any other point of view than their own," is the cogent comment made by the "Malaya Tribune" on this aspect of Colonial administration.

Healthy Singapore

"We in Singapore are in the proud and very fortunate position of being in one of the healthiest cities, if not the healthiest city in Asia." Thus said Mr. G. Parbury at the meeting of the Municipal Commissioners, in paying tribute to the local health authorities, in a speech on the adjournment. Referring to the annual report of the Health Department which was tabled, Mr. Parbury mentioned that it had entailed a great deal of work. "We take a great pride in our health, and this report, put up by Dr. Hunter and his assistant, is well worth reading, not only by Commissioners but the public generally," said Mr. Parbury. "Health has been very good, but it can be improved. There are two or three heads under which we can improve it. The greatest trouble we have is tuberculosis, and in a lesser degree, typhoid. Both are preventable things to a great extent. TB is brought about by overcrowding, and typhoid is brought about by insanitary foods. Another thing is that it is the custom of this country to eat from hawkers' barrels, and hawkers' stalls, and that is a thing which will be very difficult to eradicate or even to reduce, but Dr. Hunter is pegging away at it, and I want every Commissioner to assure him that we are going to do our very best to support him."

Rotarian Envied

Ceylon Rotarians recently held a goodwill day celebration, when it was considered something of an innovation to have ladies present. It was the first time in two years that members had been able to take their ladies to a Rotary function.

That Malaya is envied in this and other respects, even by Colombo Rotarians, is evidenced from the following comment of a Ceylon newspaper columnist, who remarks that the spirit of camaraderie among members of the Rotary Club of Colombo "still has ample room for development."

The commentator adds: "They can in this respect—as well as many others, perhaps—take a lesson from their colleagues in Malaya. A friend who has been there and attended Rotarian gatherings for two years tells me that the Tuan Besars there—the equivalent of Messrs. Bossum, Sackem & Co. of Ceylon—mix freely with the less favoured ones, generally leaving no room for newcomers to doubt that they are genuine Rotarians."

This will be Mrs. D. F. Robertson's seventeenth trip around the world.

THE TYPHOON

Latest cabled advice from the Manila Observatory yesterday evening gave the position of the typhoon as being in longitude 122 E. latitude 19 N., moving north-west.

The Royal Observatory reported yesterday afternoon that the typhoon was situated about 150 miles east of Aparri, moving westward.

R.M.A. DELPHINUS

The R.M.A. Delphinus left Kai Tak yesterday for Penang carrying two passengers, Messrs. F. R. Harris and P. A. G. Phillips. There were also on board 5,000 kilos of freight and 152,385 kilos of mail.

TRAFFIC COURT

SPEEDING IN CONTROLLED AREA

Ng Lun was summoned before Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday for driving a motor car in a dangerous manner and speeding in a controlled area. Traffic Inspector Brittain said that on June 13, while he was proceeding along the road near the Lai-chikok Prison among a row of cars, and just before coming to a controlled area, defendant suddenly drove past him and went on to overtake the other cars, which were in front but could not do so as it was near the controlled area. Defendant then drove past the other vehicles when the controlled area was clear. Inspector Brittain said that he estimated defendant's speed was about 40 miles per hour. Defendant was fined a total of $30.

CITIZEN THANKED

Kong Kwok, licensed driver, was summoned before Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday at the instigation of Mr. Clemo for driving a motor car in a dangerous manner along Castle Peak Road on June 6.

Complainant told the Court that Kong had attempted to cut a corner, and but for efficient brakes of his (Mr. Clemo's) car and that of Mr. Fowler's, the on-coming vehicle, a serious accident might have resulted.

A fine of $20 was imposed. His Worship expressed his appreciation to Mr. Clemo saying that traffic officers could not possibly be in every part of the road, and it was essential that some public spirited person should assist in the suppression of these offences.

MINOR CASES

A fine of $5 was imposed on H. B. Morton of the China Light and Power for driving a car at a speed of about 35 miles per hour in a controlled area before Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday. Traffic Sergeant Macvey prosecuted. It was revealed, as a result of an accident, that a car driven by Tsui Hok-shang had inefficient brakes. When Tsui appeared before Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday and was fined $5.

ITALO-GERMAN STATEMENT

Non-Intervention Committee Meeting Hears Suggestions

London, July 2.
A joint Italian and German statement was made at the meeting of the Non-Intervention Committee this morning. While affirming the principle of non-intervention the statement recommends, firstly, the grant of belligerent rights to both parties in Spain the ground for such decision is to have the immediate effect of strengthening the non-intervention policy in consequence of neutrals and belligerents having additional obligations in accordance with International Law. The statement contends the control system has utterly failed and would be unnecessary henceforth. Secondly, the statement recommends the continuation of the present system of supervision on Spanish land and frontiers as well as in ports with observers aboard ships belonging to non-intervention countries. The statement adds that other suggestions on these lines would be welcome.—Reuter.

AMUR RIVER INCIDENT

Russo-Japanese Negotiations

Moscow, July 1.
No progress is reported in the Russo-Japanese negotiations regarding the Amur River incident, in which Japanese short batteries shelled Russia patrol boats, and a Japanese patrol ship was captured by Soviet river craft. After a two-hour conversation here between M. Maxim Litvinoff, Foreign Commissar, and Mr. Mamoru Shigemitsu, Japanese Ambassador, they had not succeeded in altering the position, since both insisted upon the maintenance of a divergently viewed "status quo" by the other. M. Litvinoff pointed out that there would be "serious consequences if the Japanese-Manchukuoan unprecedented action" were repeated. But he assured the Ambassador that the Russians were willing to withdraw troops and cutters from the islands if the Japanese and Manchukuoans would do so. Foreign observers are of the opinion that tension has been considerably relieved and what once threatened to become a very grave situation is now assuming the character of a normal border incident.—Reuter.

RUSSIAN STATEMENT

Moscow, July 2.
The first official statement given to the press about the Amur incident was published on Thursday, and appeared under the following headlines: "Continued Manchuria-Japanese provocations in the Far East." No further information is given to the Russian public. According to reports in diplomatic circles, the Japanese Ambassador held a conference of two hours, with Litvinov on Thursday afternoon, but no result was achieved, since both parties placed the entire responsibility on the other party. Conferences will be continued.—Transocean News Service.

FARR TO MEET JOE LOUIS

Bout In September

London, July 1.
Ted Broadbribb, manager of the Welsh heavyweight, Tommy Farr, has announced that he has accepted terms and conditions offered by Mike Jacobs, manager of the Detroit negro, Joe Louis, claimant of the world's championship as a result of his victory on June 22 over Jim Braddock. Farr and Louis will fight for the world's title some time in September. The Welshman, it was announced recently, would fight Max Schmeling, German ex-champion of the world, and that fight also was billed as a championship encounter. But it has been abandoned, presumably because Jacobs is offering better terms, and Schmeling will probably meet the winner.—Reuter.

RUSSIAN COMPOSER

ARRESTED

Finland Escape Attempt Fails

Moscow, July 2.
The popular Russian composer, M. Dunafevski, has been arrested near the Finnish frontier on his second attempt to escape into Finland. M. Dunafevski, who has composed a number of marches and also known abroad, has been jailed after his previous attempt to leave Soviet Russia. To regain the favour of the Government he composed the song "To-day it's good, to-morrow it will be better" and was given amnesties as a reward. The song became very popular here. People are wondering whether M. Dunafevski will succeed in freeing himself once more by another another song pleasing in authoritative quarters.—Transocean News Service.

ECONOMIC NATIONALISM

Berlin, July 1.
Economic nationalism was discussed at to-day's session of the Conference of International Chambers of Commerce here, when, in course of a speech, President A. Pletze said that to a certain extent this was justifiable, but that it defeated its own ends, if instead of safeguarding to a minimum degree national existence, it endeavoured to produce everything from its own resources. "Economic Nationalism in its justifiable form cannot be regarded as withdrawal from world trade, as it is in reality only the attempt to subject commercial intercourse between the nations to an intelligent control."

What is needed most, is to see that in future all joint control of world trade is guided by the principle of enabling every partner on the world market to adjust his trade balances from the commodity side.

"The prominent task confronting all statesmen and businessmen to-day is to get the world commodities to flow in such a way as will lead to an international apportionment and general prosperity."—Transocean News Service.

BOTH UNIVERSITIES DEFEATED

London, July 2.
The cricket match between the M.C.C. and Oxford University was concluded to-day, the former winning by 228 runs. M.C.C.—484 (Compton 118, Owen Smith 168 not out) and 245 for 6 wickets declared; Oxford—233 (Owen Smith 5 for 33) and 270. Surrey defeated Cambridge University by an innings and 42 runs. Surrey—480 (Holmes 139); Cambridge—219 (Gover 6 for 45) and 219.—Reuter.

NATIONAL CONGRESS ELECTION

UNEASINESS GROWS

Chinese Political Circles And Plain Clothes Agents

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY ELECTIONS

Peking, July 2.
Uneasiness in Chinese political circles is mounting over the activities of plain clothes agents many of whom have been arrested during the past few days including two found loitering last night in the vicinity of the Hoped-Charhar Political Council offices. Two are alleged to have confessed that they had been employed to create disturbances during the elections of the National Assembly.

Precautions, which can be described as semi-martial law, have been enforced since June 28.

Persons in the streets late at night are liable to be searched at the point of bayonet, while units of the 28th Army have been brought into the suburbs.

Japanese sources declare there is no foundation for the Chinese alarm but it is pointed out that officials are naturally anxious at the prolonged absence of General Sung Cheh Yuan in Lolin, Shantung. This is generally attributed to his desire to escape the insistence of Japanese pressure for implementation of economic concessions including Tientsin and the Shihchiachwang Railway.—Reuter.

Budge Wins Title

This was Von Cramm's third successive appearance in the final at Wimbledon. In 1935 and 1936, he was defeated on both occasions by Fred Perry.

NEW CHAMPION'S CAREER.
It was at the end of the 1934 season that Budge first caught the attention of experts. He and Gene Mako surprised the tennis world by beating in the Southern Californian championships the three best pairs of the world, F. Perry-G. F. Hughes (England), Allison-Van Ryn (U.S.A.), and the American title-holders of America and England, Lott-Storfen.

Next year at Wimbledon Budge beat von Cramm in the Davis Cup tie, after the issue had been decided in favour of the U.S.A. He beat Henkel in four close sets. He and Mako reached the semi-final of the English championship doubles, when they went down to Crawford and Quist.

In the singles championship of England, at Wimbledon, in 1935, Budge beat in turn, Wilde, Bertram, Quist, Boussus, and Austin. Then he lost to von Cramm.

MIXED DOUBLES.
In the semi-final of the Mixed Doubles, G. F. Hughes and C.R.D. Tuckey (Great Britain) the holders, eliminated Roderick Menzel and Hecht (Czecho-Slovakia) 6-2, 6-2, 6-4.—Reuter.

MEN'S DOUBLES.
In the semi-final of the Men's Doubles, G. F. Hughes and C.R.D. Tuckey (Great Britain) the holders, eliminated Roderick Menzel and Hecht (Czecho-Slovakia) 6-2, 6-2, 6-4.—Reuter.

EASY WIN FOR YORKSHIRE

London, July 1.
Yorkshire's bid to recapture the county cricket championship continued to-day when they beat Essex by an innings and 208 runs. Leslie Hutton atoned for his failure in the Test match by scoring another century, his 124 being made out of a total of 440. Essex never shaped like scoring runs. In their first innings they were sent back for 152 and following on, they were thoroughly cowed by Verity, who took 6 for 10, and were dismissed for a mere 80 runs.—Reuter.

FARR-LOUIS FIGHT

London, July 2.
The manager of Tommy Farr announced on Thursday the fight between Farr and Louis will take place at the end of September. Whereas the American Boxing Committee recognises the fight as a title fight, British boxing circles have refused such a recognition. They believe this to be the definite end of the Schmeling-Farr fight.—Transocean News Service.

SMALL FIRE

A small fire occurred at No. 294 Portland Street last night, when a lighted cigarette end, it was alleged, which was accidentally dropped on the ground near a leaking kerosene tank, suddenly set the woodwork of the house on fire. The fire was extinguished by the foks before the appliances arrived.

PROPAGANDA OF "SOVIET DEMOCRACY"

NEW ELECTION REGULATIONS

Supreme Council of Soviet Union

Moscow, July 2.
All Soviet papers published to-day the draft of the election regulations for the election of the Supreme Council of the Soviet Union apparently scheduled for this year. According to the constitution adopted in December 1936, the Supreme Council will replace the present system of executive committees.

The Central Executive Committee will meet on July 7 for consideration of the election regulations. This meeting will probably be the last one before the election of the new Supreme Council. In the opinion of foreign circles here, the election is in reality destined for the propaganda of the "Soviet democracy."

The regulations follow strictly the example of western Europe including all formalities like the election of districts and the election of committees' methods of polling. It is noted with interest that in the constituencies, where less than half of the electorate goes to poll, new elections are to be held. It seems therefore to be expected, foreign observers remark, that the population will nevertheless, remain passive.—Transocean News Service.

EVACUATION OF REFUGEES FROM SPAIN

FURTHER STATEMENT IN COMMONS

London, July 1.
A further statement regarding the evacuation of refugees from Santander was made at question time by Lord Cranborne. He said that in view of the urgency of the matter the French Government were prepared to allow the U.S. Habana to convey women and children and refugees of non-military age from Santander to Bordeaux, provided it is clearly established that these refugees are proceeding in transit through France to other parts of Spain.

The French Government will require that a detailed list of those refugees shall be provided, or that failing this the authorities at Santander shall provide statements of the numbers of women and children and others to be evacuated, and that these statements shall be vided by the French Consular agent at Santander.

NO MEN ALLOWED

Facilities will be given to the British Consul at Bordeaux to board the Habana to verify the refugees. Any men of military age will be sent back and not allowed to land. The British Naval authorities will provide Naval protection for the Habana to proceed from Bordeaux to Santander, and to return thence to Bordeaux after embarking refugees. Lord Cranborne added that the possibility of the French Government being prepared to receive further refugees, proceeding by other ships for the purpose of crossing France en route for other parts of Spain, was understood to be conditional on the acceptance by the Spanish authorities of measures, which the French Government may consider necessary to satisfy themselves as to the numbers, nature and destination of such persons. The Spanish Government are now in communication with the French Government on this subject.—Transocean News Service.

REFUGEES ATTACKED

London, July 2.
Six thousand refugees left Santander yesterday aboard the British steamers Canisbon, Castle and Kellwyn. The ships are said to have been attacked by eight Nationalist planes when leaving Santander harbour.—Transocean News Service.

ANTI-BRITISH CAMPAIGN

London, July 1.
The fierce anti-British campaign in the Italian press alleged that Britain actively helped the reds in Spain. The "Gazda" accuses Britain of intervention and alleges, inter alia, that British ships which went to Bilbao to evacuate the refugees carried four new batteries and that a London Aircraft Company is negotiating with the Basque government agent in Paris for the sale of fifteen Hawker-Fury planes. The Aircraft Company stated that there is no truth in the "Gazda's" statement and says that the Company received inquiries for the supply of air ambulances for Spain and they replied that they will be pleased to supply them if the export licences were obtainable, but apparently, the Non-Intervention Committee decided that the Geneva Convention does not apply to the Spanish war.—Reuter.

SITUATION SERIOUS

Paris, July 1.
"The situation is obviously serious," said M. Delbos in a statement to the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Chamber in reply to a question in regard to the tension created by the Spanish situation, but he never considered it as a result of a policy of firmness and perfect understanding with Britain. He added that France would continue to firmly uphold Non-Intervention and effective control.—Reuter.

421 RED PLANES SHOT DOWN

Salamanca, July 2.
Spanish Nationalist Headquarters report that in the course of the civil war, the Nationalists have shot down 421 red planes and badly damaged 63 red planes. The losses of the Nationalists, Air Force over the same period did not amount to 10 per cent. of this figure.—Transocean News Service.

CHURCH NEWS

CATHOLIC NEWS ON BEING A JEW AND NOTES

Forty Years Of Mission Life

A few weeks ago Bishop Valtorta, the Vicar Apostolic of Hong Kong, dedicated a new church on Lantau Island, where he was the first to preach the Catholic faith. It now turns out that Bishop Fourquet, the Vicar Apostolic of Canton, had a similar experience about the same time, with this difference, however, that the place in which Bishop Fourquet blessed the church was the very first place to which he went as a young missionary priest, forty-one years ago. The place is called Seung Ling. He went there not long after his arrival in China, and in one way or another he has been connected with it ever since. A small church was built there many years ago but as the congregation grew a new one was required. It was completed this year, and many memories of the past were revived when Mr. Fourquet went there to dedicate it.

"THE MAN IN THE IRON LUNG"

The case of Frederick Snite "The Man in the Iron Lung" has attracted great attention both in China and in the United States, and his journey from Peking to Chicago was followed with great interest everywhere. Among those who came into contact with him and his family on board the "President Coolidge" was Sr. Paul, of the Maryknoll Sisters in Kowloon, who was conversing with several other sisters to a General Chapter of their Congregation. The Snite family are fervent Catholics, and the spirit of Christian resignation with which the young man has endured his tedious illness made a great impression on both doctors and nurses who attended him. When the family arrived at Shanghai from Peking they discovered that a priest, Fr. Moore, of the Scarborough (Canadian) Foreign Mission Society, was to travel to San Francisco, on the "President Jackson" two days after they would sail. At their special request it was arranged that he would make a change and travel with them on the "President Coolidge." On the day of embarkation, Fr. Moore celebrated Mass in the Shanghai General Hospital for the patient, and he and all the members of his family received Holy Communion. On the voyage, Fr. Moore likewise celebrated Mass daily in the cabin hospital. There is a particularly interesting account of "The Man in the Iron Lung" in the July "Rock," which has just appeared.

NEW APOSTOLIC PREFECTURE IN HUPCH

The elevation of the mission of Suhsien, in Hupch, to the rank of an Apostolic Prefecture, has a particular interest for many people in Hong Kong, for the priest who has been named the first Prefect Apostolic, with the rank of Monsignor, is Fr. Maurice Connaughton, O.F.M., who is well known in Hong Kong. He has been here many times and his sister has lived here for many years. Mr. Connaughton is, however, still better known in Hankow, where he was ordained in 1913 and has resided for a great many years since. He was Pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Conception in that city and took a prominent part in civic affairs, serving on several relief committees. The Franciscan Order, to which Mr. Connaughton belongs, has a representative in Hong Kong in the person of Fr. Thomas Chambers O.F.M., who receives the various members of his Order who pass through the Colony. It was one of these missionaries who passed through a year ago, for health's sake, to his native Spain after many years spent in work in China, and was burned to death by the Communist mob on the streets of Valencia a few weeks after his arrival.

HONG KONG JESUITS RETURN TO EUROPE

To-day three Irish Jesuits, who have spent some years in Hong Kong, are returning to Europe. One, Fr. Fleming, who was a professor at the Regional Seminary, Aberdeen, has been called back to Ireland to take up a professorship of Philosophy. The two others, Rev. T. Sheridan and Fr. Cronin, have been teaching in Wah Yan College, where they enjoyed considerable popularity with the Chinese students. They are returning to complete their studies preparatory to ordination to the priesthood.

He cannot help it.

If he is a poet the pain of the separation of his heart and mind will assuredly find expression in his poetry. No matter what he wants to write or to do, he is bound to become the witness that the nation whose tongue he speaks, and to which he belongs, is no nation at all, in the sense that it has no vital religious tradition of which it may be proud. The Jew must speak and act in that way because for seventeen hundred years the Jew's heart has never had a home.

NO HEART—HOME

It is hardly possible that the Jew will ever have a home in the world now—a home for his heart. The English people, who are a vital people, have given the Jew a home, but it is not yet a heart-home.

The home of the heart of the Jew, they say, is in Jerusalem still. But there is not much reason for believing that. The renaissance of Jewry in Palestine in these days is very wonderful, but Jewry has a greater destiny than a return to Palestine. Its destiny is to be the test of Western humanity.

Not until the heart of the Jew finds a home in the countries to which he belongs by speech, will Western civilization be Christian. When that position is attained, then neither by race nor by religion, will there be a distinction between the Christian and the Jew.

hood, and hope to return to Hong Kong when these are completed—in five years' time. Mr. Cronin was Assistant-Director of the Wah Yan Hostel, Editor of the College Magazine "The Star," and a well-known Form Master and House Master. Mr. Sheridan, as Sport's Master, was well-known figure in the school, and had the capacity of being able to arouse the boys' interest in literature even more than in games. He achieved considerable success in the College theatricals, and was a producer of exceptional ability. Many farewell gatherings in honour of these two teachers were spontaneously organised by the Wah Yan boys, and sincere good wishes follow them on their journey.

A Sports Master of another Catholic College, St. Joseph's, also left for Europe during the past week. This was Bro. Hubert, whose skill in the organisation of athletics was particularly evident during the College Diamond Jubilee celebrations last year. He will be greatly missed not only in St. Joseph's but also in the Colony, and all who know him hope that when he returns to the East next year it will be to Hong Kong.

PEACE IN THE PACIFIC

CHINESE OPINION

His proposal was made in the following terms:

The Australian Government has noted the tendency of States to endeavour to enter into agreements in the form of regional pacts in respect of regions where their interests are directly concerned. Australia would greatly welcome a regional understanding and pact of non-aggression by the countries of the Pacific, conceived in the spirit of the principles of the League. Towards the achievement of such a pact we are prepared to collaborate with all other peoples of the Pacific in a spirit of understanding and sympathy.

Whether this statement can be directly connected with the discussions of the sixth conference of the Institute of Pacific Relations, held at Yosemite, California, last August, I am not in a position to say. It is certain, however, that the views expressed at that conference upon the desirability of a regional understanding in the Pacific were conveyed to the Australian Government and that the section of public opinion in China just alluded to is being largely influenced by recently published reflections of Professor Hu Shih, who headed the Chinese group at the conference, upon the proposals that were then made.

THE NEW R.A.F. "AT HOME"

53 Stations Open To Public

Visitors to any Air Force station open for Empire Air Day may have realised that also at fifty-two other aerodromes and establishments, scattered all over the kingdom, thousands of the public were watching displays of wonderful flying and inspecting remarkable technical achievements, writes a correspondent in the "Evening Standard."

Each station had its own special programme, embodied in a booklet common to all. If one could have been present at all the stations, one would have visualised the whole of the vast and varied work of the Air Force, but at each there was much to see.

The scope was unlimited. Sea aircraft and land aircraft, wireless controlled, unpowered, catapulted, aircraft kite balloons, dive bombing, supply dropping, actions between aircraft and ground troops, battles in the air, smoke screens, gas attacks, parachutes, alarms and excursions, apprentices in training, young pilots in training, cadets, scientific equipment, firing, at aerial-towed targets, workshops—an endless list.

What a Service! Youth, keenness, high spirits.

One of the great attractions was the permission given at three or four of the stations to members of the public to send radio-telephone orders to aeroplanes in flight. Sixpence for three orders!

Speaking in ordinary tones in what appeared to be an ordinary telephone, and choosing from a list of possible orders, one visitor said: "Blue aircraft. Loop. Roll on top of loop. Go."

Looking up, he saw the instruction carried out.

At Henlow more marvellous still, for a "Queen Bee" pilotless aeroplane was in the air. You wanted that machine to climb, and told the operator so. He simply pressed one of a number of white buttons on a panel. You heard a clicking sound. You looked up, and saw the aeroplane obey your wish. And by subsequent orders its astonishing responsiveness was displayed.

At Kenley, Northolt, and other aerodromes, aerobatics in their latest development. Most wonderful of all the changing of formation by three or four machines whilst zooming upward or looping the loop.

NEW AIRCRAFT

Some of the new aerodromes were open, and some of the new aircraft were on view—Harrows, Battles, Whiteleys, Blenheims, and others; but none of the new monoplane fighters.

In order that each station should have as varied a programme as possible, there were visiting bomber and fighter squadrons and flights, flying from place to place and doing a "turn" at each.

At many service aerodromes local flying clubs and air line companies put up excellent shows, and also gave passenger flights.

The attendances greatly exceeded those at Empire Air Day last year. The R.A.F. aeroplanes, taking part in the displays, numbered more than 1,100.

Besides the fifty-three R.A.F. stations, thirty-seven civil aerodromes gave special displays.

AUSTRO-GERMAN NEGOTIATIONS

Vienna, July 1.

The Austro-German Government negotiations, which because of their postponement, have caused much conjecture in foreign press quarters, will, according to well-informed circles, begin on July 7, in this city and continue till July 10.

It is taken for granted that the negotiations will be presided over by the Austrian Foreign Secretary, Dr. Guido Schmidt, and the Austrian delegation include Minister Giese-Horstenau, State Councillor Seiss-Ungar and Director Adam from the State Department, while Germany will be represented by the Director of the Political Department, the Foreign Office, Minister von Weizsacker, Minister Aschmann, Legation Councillor Altenburg and Councillor Baede from the Propaganda Ministry.

Special importance is attached to these negotiations in connection with the Austro-German agreement of July 11, 1934, since opportunity will be afforded for a survey of the results in the first year.

It is generally assumed in political circles here that the conference will concern itself with concrete facts and will not hesitate to tackle problems which constitute obstacles in the path of improvement of Austro-German relations.

NEW TERRITORY MURDER

MAN FOUND DEAD ON PATHWAY

Mok Mun-tung, aged 25, male, unemployed, was the victim of a brutal murder, committed last night in the vicinity of Lau Fau Shah. Deceased lived in a numbered hut in that place. Deceased was last seen alive by villagers about 8 p.m. on Thursday, and about 7 p.m. last night he was found lying dead on a pathway on the hillside near Nam Sze Wat village by his brother, Mok Tak Kin.

There were three wounds on his head and one on the right side of the neck below the ear which appeared to be a stab wound.

It was suspected that deceased lived alone at the above mentioned village and left his hut for the purpose of stealing oysters from the sea-bed in the vicinity of Lau Fau Shah or other property as a result of which he was chased and assaulted.

LAWN BOWLS COMPETITIONS

Fixtures Arranged

The Hong Kong Lawn Bowls Sub-Committee held their ordinary meeting at the Boardroom of the "South China Morning Post" Building yesterday, during which Mr. Bass, Chairman, presided. The following fixtures were made:—

July 5.

Craig and Fincher v. Revie and Brown (Recreo).
Luz and Luz v. Gutierrez and Basto (K.C.C.).

Purvis and Hillyer v. Eccleshall and Grimmer (H.K.F.C.).
Strange and Armstrong v. Simmonds and Baker (H.K.F.C.).

July 6.

Ramsay and McKelvie v. Ferguson and Gibson (K.C.C.).
Walker and Randall v. Howell and Brooks (K.C.C.).

July 7.

Duncan and Gill v. Stoneham and Hosking (S.C.C.C.).
Howard and Zimmern v. Omar and Omar.

The draw for the preliminary rounds of the singles competition will be made on Friday, July 9.

A letter from Mr. Basto suggesting the appointment of umpires for the rinks was read out by the Hon. Secretary, Mr. Hosking.

With regard to the appointment of umpires, the committee were unanimous of the opinion that in the case of open pairs and open rinks it was not necessary to appoint official umpires until the semi-final stage, it being felt that the players themselves were fully competent of dealing with any infringement of rules by opponents.

FALSE TRADE MARK ON MILK BOTTLES

The Yuen Yuen Dairy Farm was summoned before Mr. K. M. A. Barnett at the Kowloon Magistrate's Court yesterday afternoon by the Dairy Farm Ice and Cold Storage, Co. for having in their possession, session for sale or for some purpose of trade or manufacture milk bottles to which had been applied a mark so nearly resembling the trade mark of the complainant firm as to be calculated to deceive. Defendants were fined $100. The bottles were ordered to be confiscated.

The prosecution was conducted by Mr. W. A. Mackinlay while Mr. Hin-shing Lo was for the defence.

ANOTHER CASE

The Kowloon Ng Chow Dairy were, similarly summoned but were discharged owing to the fact that except the fluting and shape of the bottles the other marks were entirely different.

Hon. Mr. K. M. A. conducted the defence in this case.

DEMANDING MONEY

A case of demanding money by menaces was brought to the notice of Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy when Chung Tat, 25, and Lam Tam-suk, 27, both unemployed, were charged. It is alleged that on June 30 they went to No. 44 Hennessy Road, third floor, and demanded $3 from Mrs. P. Peir, with intent to steal the money.

Both defendants pleaded not guilty and Detective Sub-Inspector Darkin asked for a remand. Tuesday, July 13, has been provisionally fixed for the hearing of the case.
